Delightful Diversions

Outstanding entertainment options are always a hallmark of any successful meeting destination. Our conference services associates will be delighted to arrange any of the following activities for your attendees or their families during your stay at Great Wolf Lodge - Concord.

There's a reason why Forbes Traveler magazine named Charlotte one of the "Top 30 Most Visited US Cities," and many of the area's most popular attractions are right in our neck of the woods. From the famous Lowe's Motor Speedway to the popular Concord Mills Mall, attendees will never find an idle moment exploring our neighborhood, which is known as, "The Racing Side of Charlotte."

Our Waterpark and Recreation

Attendees naturally expect they'll have to dress up for planning sessions and PowerPoint presentations. But we believe for every minute spent in a meeting, attendees benefit by spending equal time having fun "outside the box." And there's nothing more outside the box than inside our resort.

For starters, try our enormous 80,000 square-foot indoor waterpark. Zip down one of 11 water slides, including two tube slides, two body slides, and the award-winning Howlin' Tornado, an enclosed tube ride with a 65 foot funnel that drops 30 feet a second. Or splash in one of our four pools, including a gigantic wave pool, an activity pool, a two-sided zero depth entry children's pool, and an indoor/outdoor hot tub. And at the center of it all is Fort McKenzie, a four-story, interactive tree house water fort featuring a 1,000-gallon tipping bucketful of cascading water.

Plan team building exercises or competitions in our state-of-the-art Northern Lights Arcade, where you can race motorcycles, NASCAR or even target shoot in the comfortable confines of this 10,000 square foot video game area.

Try your luck with Guitar Hero in gr8_space, our interactive tech center. You can even consider using MagiQuest for your team building activities. This game, which is the best interactive action adventure fantasy game of its kind, is sure to bring out the kid-at-heart in everyone.

For relaxation at the end of the day, enjoy a rejuvenating experience at Elements Spa. Experience the aromatic power of all natural Aveda® compositions in our massages, facials and nail treatments. Advanced reservations are always recommended. And just because they're away from home doesn't mean attendees can't stay in shape. Our Iron Horse Fitness center offers the latest in strength and cardio-fitness equipment.
