

Rock Collection Discovery Reports

Fill out discovery reports for the rocks in your collection. You can use measuring tools like a ruler, or simply use your imagination. Once they're complete, cut them out, fold them in half and display them next to your rocks.

(Your name)

(Your name)

DISCOVERY REPORT

This rock is called _____ .
(Name of rock or rock type)

It was found _____ ,
(Location)

on _____ . It is _____ long
(Date) (Length)

and weighs _____ , and it's known for its (Weight)

_____ .
(Unique feature)

DISCOVERY REPORT

This rock is called _____ .
(Name of rock or rock type)

It was found _____ ,
(Location)

on _____ . It is _____ long (Date) (Length)

and weighs _____ , and it's known for its (Weight)

_____ .
(Unique feature)

(Your name)

(Your name)

DISCOVERY REPORT

This rock is called _____ .
(Name of rock or rock type)

It was found _____ ,
(Location)

on _____ . It is _____ long (Date) (Length)

and weighs _____ , and it's known for its (Weight)

_____ .
(Unique feature)

DISCOVERY REPORT

This rock is called _____ .
(Name of rock or rock type)

It was found _____ ,
(Location)

on _____ . It is _____ long (Date) (Length)

and weighs _____ , and it's known for its (Weight)

_____ .
(Unique feature)